Margaret and Peter Lukasevich Memorial Prize in Early Childhood Education (#1968)

AWARD CRITERIA:

The Lukasevich Memorial Graduate Prize in Early Childhood Education is endowed in memory of Margaret and Peter Lukasevich by their daughters, Dr. Ann Lukasevich and Mrs. Margaret Tousignant. It is awarded to a graduate student whose scholarly work informs practice in early childhood education. Preference will be given to students who have experience working with, or teaching, young children between the ages of three and eight. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Education, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

The award will be given in recognition of a graduate student based on: (1) the quality of their academic achievement and scholarship in the field of early childhood education; and (2) the degree to which that scholarly work has informed or has the potential to inform practice in early childhood education. Preference will be given to students with experience working with, or teaching, young children between the ages of three and eight.
